These visions as repeated to us, resemble the Simulacra of the ancient Romans. The wraith called the Double, is in effect a dual image of one s self or of another person still living, which, when it appears, is supposed to be predictive of the near-coming death of the person whose shadow is thus projected from out that spirit land he is so soon destined finally to enter. In other words, the appearance of the Double is regarded as a premonition of death. Henry C., a respectable man, told us that, when a boy of ten years of age, he saw one of these visionary likenesses, --the Doppelganger of the Germans. He shared the same bed with his father s brother, Christopher, and one day he awoke and saw in the early gray of the morning, standing near the bed, a figure whom he supposed to be his uncle. But at the same moment, also noticing that his uncle was beside him in the bed, he became greatly frightened. Christopher then spoke to his little nephew very calmly, telling him not to be afraid, --and as he spoke the shadow vanished. The man then rose, dressed himself, and went down-stairs, where meeting Henry s father, he said to him, Brother, my double has come for me, and Henry also has seen it. I shall not be with you long in this world. After that he grew melancholy, could eat...
