Through the long levels of the land Life leads two pilgrims by the hand. And ever as they walk the eyes of one Turn backward to the setting of the sun. The other eastward, toward the hills of dawn, Urges the steps of Life, Who, steadfast in the strife, Though ever eastward, ever westward drawn, Binds each to each with bands (Her soft, insistent hands); Recalls them to the bird-songs near and sweet; The plants of use and beauty springing round their feet. . Life leans and listens to the tale, thrice told, The creed, the song, the legend of the Old; But toward the east, the sunrise, and the dew, Her heart leaps forward with the radiant New. Mary A.
