Reviews

An extremely awesome publication with lucid and perfect explanations. It is actually written in basic phrases rather than confusing. You will like how the writer published this book.

I agree with your suggestion, and I am referring your letter to the Committee on Patents for their consideration. HON. JOSHUA V. ALEXANDER U. S. House of Representatives; Chairman, Committee on the Merchant Marine and Fisheries. I heartily endorse the proposition to provide a laboratory for inventors, and I hope you will be successful in your undertaking. GELLERT ALLEMA.V. Professor of Chemistry, Swarthmore College; fellow, Society of Chemical Industry, London; American Association for the Advancement of Science; Member, American Chemical Society; American Electro Chemical Society, Chemists Club; and expert in creosote and electrolysis. I feel the venture should be carried through. If it would be the means of encouraging and developing a single great invention that might otherwise not see the light of success, its existence would more than be justified. FREDERICK D. ANDERSON. Inventor of Motion Picture Apparatus. I wish you much success in your efforts to help to bring about this result. HON. M. ALEXANDER. Governor of Idaho. I feel that the new Laboratory which you are considering developing would be of great value. It would be in the same line as the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research or the Mellon Institute for Industrial Chemistry but being a combination of a great...
