My dear motherI have kept you posted as far as Tuesday week last, and, although my letter will not have reached you yet, I will begin another before my news accumulates too much. I am glad you show my letters round in the family, for I like them all to know what I am doing, and I cant write to every one, though I try to answer all reasonable expectations. But there are a great many unreasonable ones, as I suppose you knownot yours, dear mother, for I am bound to say that you never required of me more than was natural. You see you are reaping your reward: I write to you before I write to any one else. This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
