He was an unlikely companion tasked with protecting Stanley from just after his birth through the trials of his life. Their paths paralleled and intertwined through the most amazing life leading each to reach for the skies and to find amazing love and beauty. As the distance between the two aircraft closed rapidly, Angus looked into Stan s face to try to read what was going on in his mind. He looked into his eyes and saw all the pain that Stan had endured since childhood. All the disappointment, frustration, rejection and loneliness. But unfortunately in addition to this, he also saw focus and determination. Once Stan was focused on something, there was no way to convince him to alter his course. Precious seconds passed with no solution presenting itself. Angus tried his old trick of whispering into his ear to not kill those boys, but to no avail. The distance was closing and time was running out. Angus knew that Stan s skill as a pilot and his mastery of...
